

Community Rules

TransIRC is a space for transgender and gender-questioning individuals. To keep it safe and affirming for everyone, all users are expected to follow these rules:

1. Respect all identities — no harassment, hate speech, slurs, misgendering, or deadnaming.
2. This is a trans and gender-questioning space.
3. Don't message users without their consent. Consent always matters.
4. Disruptive behavior — such as spam, flooding, baiting, sealioning, or trolling — is not allowed.
5. No transmedicalist, AGP, or other exclusionary rhetoric. These ideologies harm our community and will not be tolerated.
6. Respect everyone's autonomy and boundaries. Don't push advice, debate identities, or demand personal disclosures.
7. If something feels off, report it using:

!report nick reason

or speak to an admin directly.

These rules apply to all channels on TransIRC.

Violations may result in warnings, kicks, or bans depending on severity. Admin decisions are made to protect the safety of the community.

Let's keep this space kind, respectful, and supportive for all trans people and those questioning their gender.
